President's Message

Last month was "Marble March" and club members had fun talking about marbles and displaying marbles found detecting. We had an interview video with local marble expert Bentsen Moss and there were marble raffle items for the members. It was a good night!

The April meeting is "Bourse Night", a "bourse" is the public area, typically at a coin show of any size, where the buying and selling of relics, coins, paper money, books, bottles, marbles, exnumia (medals and tokens) and other items takes place. According to Merriam-Webster, "bourse" is also the name for a European stock exchange and literally means "purse" in middle French. At a typical coin show bourse, dealer tables are formed into several large rectangles, splitting the floor and creating aisles for collectors and other attendees to walk and view the dealers' inventories. Please bring any items you want to sell or trade this month and we'll have tables setup for you to display, sell and trade your treasures.

In addition to "Bourse Night", "Finds of the Month" and great raffle prizes including a gold coin, this month we're also looking forward to selecting this years club coin entry so please bring your club coin design so the members can vote and determine this years coin design. We'll have Don Swain submit the winning entry to the mint and have the 2022 NUTS club coin available for purchase later this year.

Next month we're excited to announce that Glen Beckstead will be speaking and presenting information about antiques and collectibles, then we'll round out the night and hear from a representative from Safe Haven Private Vaults where we can safely and securely store our treasures and collectibles.

As a reminder, please submit any interesting articles that you have to share to Cheryl Harrison by noon on the Saturday before the meeting to receive a Christmas raffle ticket. Also, bring your friends and family to the meeting. If they sign up you receive a silver dime and the new member receives a limited edition 40th anniversary club token. To those members who joined in January, February and March we welcome you!"

Finds of the Month

MY VISIT TO THE PARK CITY MUSEUM

Submitted by Wade Frischknecht

This past weekend we enjoyed strolling down Park City Main street and checked out the Museum. It was interesting reading all the captions telling about the history and how prospectors discovered silver in 1868. There were captions and articles about several famous mine owners who made fortunes and contributed to several buildings, schools, and churches in Salt Lake City.

John Judge, who worked with John Daly at the Utah Penitentiary, both left there to find fortunes in Park City. They worked hard starting the Daly Judge Mining Co. John Judge died of silicosis “minor’s consumption” in 1892. His wife, Mary Judge, donated money that helped to build the Cathedral of the Madeline, the Judge building, a mining hospital, and Judge Memorial High School.

George Hearst made around 50 million dollars from the Ontario mine. He had purchased it from four miners for $27,000. This is how the Hearst family had the money to start their newspaper empire.

Colonel William Ferry, once an owner of the famous Quincy mine, donated money and land to start Westminster College.

Thomas Kearns, who made millions mining in Park City as part owner of the Silver King Mine, built the Kearns Mansion on East Brigham St. (so Temple) in 1901. That same year he became a U.S. Senator. He, and his wife Jennie, built what was the St. Ann’s Orphanage on 2100 S. 400 E. in 1904, which is now the Kearns St. Annes School.

They also donated money to help build the Cathedral of the Madeleine. Thomas Kearns died in 1918. His wife, Jennie, donated their home to the State of Utah in 1937 which is now the Governor’s Mansion.

There was a caption telling about Park City in its heyday, having 22 Saloons / Bars lining its main street. This got me looking at some of the tokens listed from there, such as Gold Label Liquor, Horse Shoe Bar, New Park Bar, and Oak Saloon, to name a few.

It brought back memories looking at the rail cars that took skiers under ground three miles then up 1800 ft. on a vertical hoist to the ski run.

The Park City Museum is hosting a zoom lecture tilted “PROHIBITION: Thirteen Awful Years of the Noble Experiment” on Wednesday, May 4th from 5-6 p.m. You can register for it by going into the Park City Museum website and select events /lectures. The Park City Museum has free admission the third Saturday of each month in 2022.
